Telebyte Rental Program

Local Loop Simulators
Noise Simulators

When today's marketplace demands flexibility,
Telebyte makes it easy to do business.

As your partner in technology and innovation, Telebyte is always looking for ways to help you stay ahead of the competition in a challenging marketplace. Our flexible Rental Program is ideal when you need equipment for a short period of time, your budget is limited, or you want an extended "try-before-you-buy" option. Buy within the minimum rental period and deduct the cost of your rental from the purchase price*.

How It Works

- Price: 10% of the list price/per month
- Minimum rental period: three months
- Buy within minimum three-month rental period and deduct rent paid from purchase price*
- Customer pays all shipping, duties, taxes, etc.

Please note that credit is given only for the first three months of rental fees paid.*
